The scope of the service can be referred from below information (in descending level of services):

Substantive Editing:

- Substantive Editing is our top-tier premium service.
- This service pays the closest attention to detail and offers the most thorough treatment in the areas of academic editing, proofreading and quality assurance. This increases the possibility of getting published in international peer-reviewed journals.
- The focus of substantive editing is not only on the proper use of the English language, but also the overall presentation of each paper, including the logical flow and structure.
- We ensure that the manuscript complies 100% with journal guidelines and it is ready for publication in any SCI/SSCI indexed journal.

Copy Editing:

- Enago’s Copyediting service is designed for university researchers who require 100% language accurate manuscripts.
- This two- stage process covers everything from spelling and grammar to accuracy, including adherence to journal guidelines.

Language Check:

- University researchers requiring only a basic round of language and grammar checks should select Enago’s language Check editing.
- This rapid service includes a high quality top-level review of content for clarity, accuracy and readability by an expert academic editor.
